

BAKER/COOK

£8/hour, (£17,00 annually)

DESCRIPTION:

Full time position in a new family friendly Swedish Café, expected to open in April 2019.

This is an opportunity to be part of an all new team starting out on an exciting adventure and creating success together. This is an ideal position if you already have experience working in a bakery or kitchen but you feel that you are ready to take on some more responsibility.

TASKS:

- You will be baking the cinnamon buns, other Swedish buns and cakes for the café.
- You will be preparing breakfasts and lunches and deserts to order.
- You will be preparing open sandwiches, toasties, salads etc.
- You will be responsible for stacking and unloading the dishwasher and keeping the kitchen tidy and clean.
- You will, on occasion, have to help out with serving customers and clearing tables.
- You will be responsible for the health and hygiene standards within the kitchen.
- You will be responsible for stocktaking within the kitchen and you will assist in ordering from suppliers.
- You will be responsible for managing the waste disposal.

ESSENTIAL:

- You must be enthusiastic about Sweden and you must like children.
- You must be flexible, committed and comfortable using your own initiative.
- You must have at least one year of commercial experience in cooking or baking.
- You must be able to communicate in English (spoken and written) with customers and staff.
- You must be able to work 5 days a week, including weekends and public holidays.

DESIRED:

Please indicate on your application if you have any or all of the following skills; training can be provided if you do not:

- Barista level 1.
- Knowledge of the Swedish language, food and culture.
- Food health and safety level 1.
- First aid.

BENEFITS:

Pension contributions, paid annual leave, subsidised food and drink while on shift, staff and family discounts.

APPLICATIONS:

Please apply via email to: swedishden@gmail.com and mention the job title in 'Subject'. Please also include:

- You CV
- A cover letter to tell us, why you are interested in working in the Swedish Den and what makes you the best person for the job.
- A reference from a previous employer.

Closing date Friday 15th March 2019! Looking forwards to receiving your application!
